Q12) Give an assessment of the contribution by Vaikkom Muhammad Basheer to Malayalam literature.

ans12) Vaikkom Muhammad Basheer was one of the early muslim writers to gain wide renown as a novelist in Malayalam.

- Most of his ^{were} works based on his own rich personal experience rather than on books from the past.
- Basheer's short novels and stories were written in the ordinary language of conversation.
- With wonderful humour, Basheer's novels speak about details from the everyday life of muslim households.
- He also brought into Malayalam writing themes which were considered very unusual at that time - poverty, insanity and life in prisons.
